Will I talk about global warming? What about political correctness? Perhaps the ethics of stem cell research? Or the dangers of fast food? There are literally thousands of topic possibilities.

Take away the pain of indecision by using this simple test. Choose a topic and ask yourself the series of questions below. The winner is the topic that has the highest number of YES answers!

ORIGINALITY

If the topic is already known, do I have something fascinating, different and interesting to say on it?
If not, leave it alone!

TIME

Do I have time to do the research and analysis required?
Do I have time to craft the speech thoroughly?
If not, choose another.

1

PASSION

How much do I genuinely care about this topic? Do I believe in it and support it?
To be persuasive you need to care, not just a little but a lot!

2

3

AUDIENCE & GRADING

Will my audience care about this topic? Will it interest them?
If the speech is being graded, does this topic fit the guidelines you were given?

4

5

REHEARSAL

Am I prepared to do the rehearsal/practice required in order to persuade convincingly on this topic?
